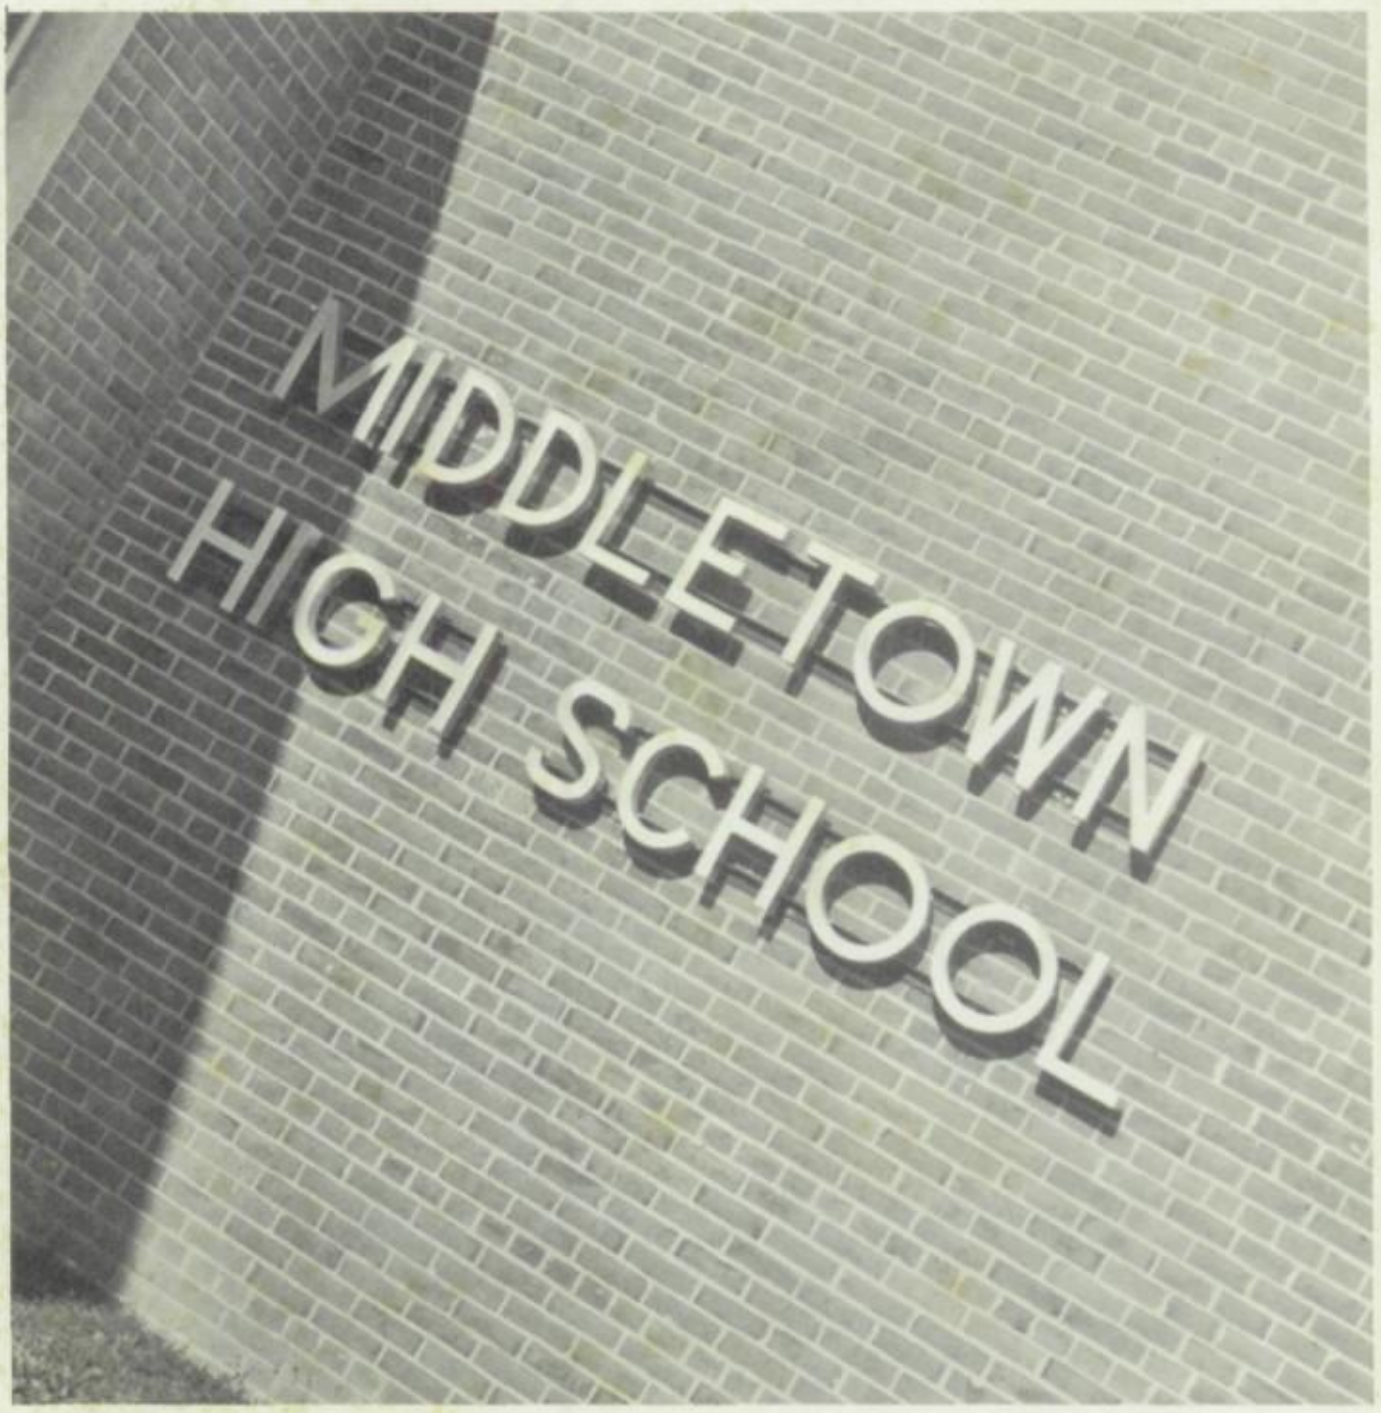
CHESTNUT BURR



Middletown High School
Middletown, Maryland

FOREWORD

This is your 1959 CHESTNUT BURR . . . In presenting this year's CHESTNUT BURR, we hope you find between its pages the reflections of the Middletown Valley you have known and loved during 1958-59. We have tried to recapture some of the past year with its memories, and some of the present with its hustling good times. As you turn through the CHESTNUT BURR, may you recall the things that have meant most to you.

Elizabeth Palmer

We, the class of 1959, as a tribute to her help in making our years at Middletown High School fuller and more fruitful, dedicate this, our yearbook, to Miss Elizabeth R. Palmer.

Not only has she enriched our hours of classwork under her instruction, but she has guided our Senior Class as one of our advisors.

DEDICATION

Ross Foltz

In appreciation for guiding us through our senior year, for helping us in classroom discussion, for guiding us in our personal life, we the seniors of Middletown High School, dedicate our yearbook, the Chestnut Burr, to Mr. Ross Foltz, our loyal friend.

FACULTY

GEORGE BARRICK
Principal

To the Seniors:

As you look to the future, may you always be prepared for the worst so that you will not be lacking in fortitude, may you always expect the best so that hope and optimism will spring eternally within your heart, and may you always take what comes with resolution and in the conviction that the human spirit is indomitable.

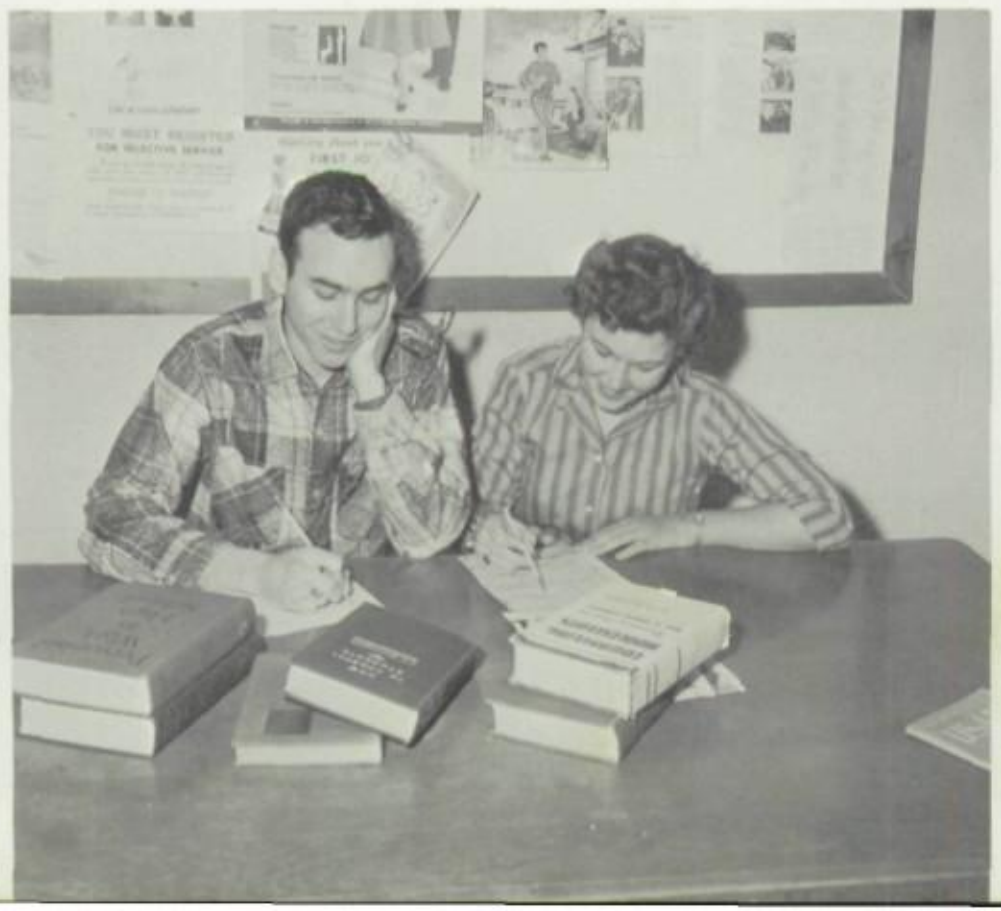
HALL OF FAME

Best All-Round Students

RUTH SMITH and BILL STEVENS
Who's involved in everything going on? Why Ruth and Bill, of course.

Most Studious

ANNA MAE BOYER and DONALD MILLER
Who says studying isn't fun? Both Anna Mae and Donald enjoy it.



Best Athletes

RUTH SMITH and JOHN KELLER
Who's expected to go to the Big Leagues? None other than Ruth and John.

Most Popular

PATTI SLIFER and RONALD HAYS
Who's always surrounded by a crowd? Patti and "Speedy," of course.

Most Artistic

JOANNE FLOOK and DALE GROSSNICKLE
Who can draw a straight line with a ruler? Joanne and Dale, naturally.

Best Looking

RUTH BUTLER and JOHN HENDRICKS
Something pretty special to look at--that's Ruth and John.

Neatest

BEVERLY KELLER and KENNETH RUNKLE
Who never has a hair out of place? That must be "Bev" and "Kenny."

Most Musical

ANNA RHAE AHALT and RUDELL AHALT
The two A's of music--Ahalt and Ahalt--Rudell and Anna Rhae.

Class Clowns

JUDITH KUHN and WILLIAM OGLE
Who would do anything for a laugh? "Judy" and "Billy," of course.

Best Mannered

DARWIN COFFMAN and BEVERLY HAINES
No need for reading Emily Post. Their manners are outstanding.

Best Dancers

BETTY RAY GLADHILL and SAM HUFFER
They need no hints from Arthur Murray. Betty Ray and Sammy are always on their toes.

Quietest

ELAINE AHALT and GEORGE PRYOR
Who's quiet and observant? You're absolutely right, Elaine and George.

Friendliest

FAYE GROSSNICKLE and JOHN RUDY
Who has a friendly smile for all? Never too busy to say "Hi."

EPILEPSY:

"Why's everybody always pickin' on me?"

Who's the young lady in the slacks?

Did he make it?

Don't tell the teacher it's a sub-marine sandwich! I'll wallop you.

"Come closer to me."

They're only posing!

Little space girls.

"Just keep walking."
